Yesterday is already a dream, and Tomorrow is only a vision; but Today,
well-lived,

makes every yesterday a dream of happiness, and every Tomorrow
a vision of hope.

Foreword

Time changes many things and later the meaning changes along with time. We have attempted to capture some of the moments that have been instrumental in building the memories of the past year here at Woodson.

The cream of our high school days is yet to be skimmed by the unseen fates that await us somewhere in the future. We know not how we shall be judged, but we have thrust forth our purest hands.

As we turn the following pages, we see the moving forces that have made for a certain exactness in the pattern of our high school lives:

Success and failure, crisis and decision, time and circumstances, bitter-sweet happiness of classwork, chit-chat and dancing in the activity room, first period with Jack in the cafeteria, the joy when we win the big ones, the tears of defeat, the science fairs and the Miss and Mr. Woodson Contests, the stuck escalators and loud-speaker sermons, the Christmas door contests, and hiding in the stairwells, the Homecoming parade, and ice cream from the truck on the parking lot; these little things, among countless others, are what we remember most from our high school years!

Living demands involvement with which we mix individual vitality, enthusiasm, and initiative into a happiness which fills the lives of all of us. Our concerns here make us look forward to new, challenging, and exciting ideas and changes.

We hope that our dedication and strong determination will better our school, not only for us, but also for those who will follow.

The YearBook Staff

With deep humility, we, the class of 1980, warmly dedicate our yearbook to Miss Laura A. Watkins, a teacher of Philosophy, English, and Humanities at Howard D. Woodson Senior High School since its opening in 1972. Her personal accomplishments, achievements and awards partially include the following (in addition to teaching at Woodson): The sponsor of Woodson's "It's Academic" Team; The first Black teacher at the Congressional Page School; A member of Phi Delta Kappa National Honor Fraternity in Education; The National Council of Teachers of English, and the National Association for Humanities Education; A poetess, author, bibliophile, and respected scholar, Miss Watkins was a person who encouraged students and her fellow colleagues to aspire for greater accomplishments.

A fragment of an original poem by Miss Watkins best describes her profound optimism for life:

... But most of all Let your mind plant seeds that others may sprout from its cultivating roots reaching outward and onward to unlimited pathways of the universe

Woodson, My Woodson

(Sung to the tune of "Purlie") Lyrics by Grace Bradford)

I love to stand before the school and look up at the tower, And count the floors from one to eight, that represent our power

No more shirking, no more lurking, I'll be busy working,

I've got to open up my books and take a look — I reckon

The sun don't shine to light the ground, the sun shines down to shine on Woodson,
Woodson, my Woodson

The lights don't shine to light the sky, the lights shine up to shine on Woodson — Woodson, my Woodson

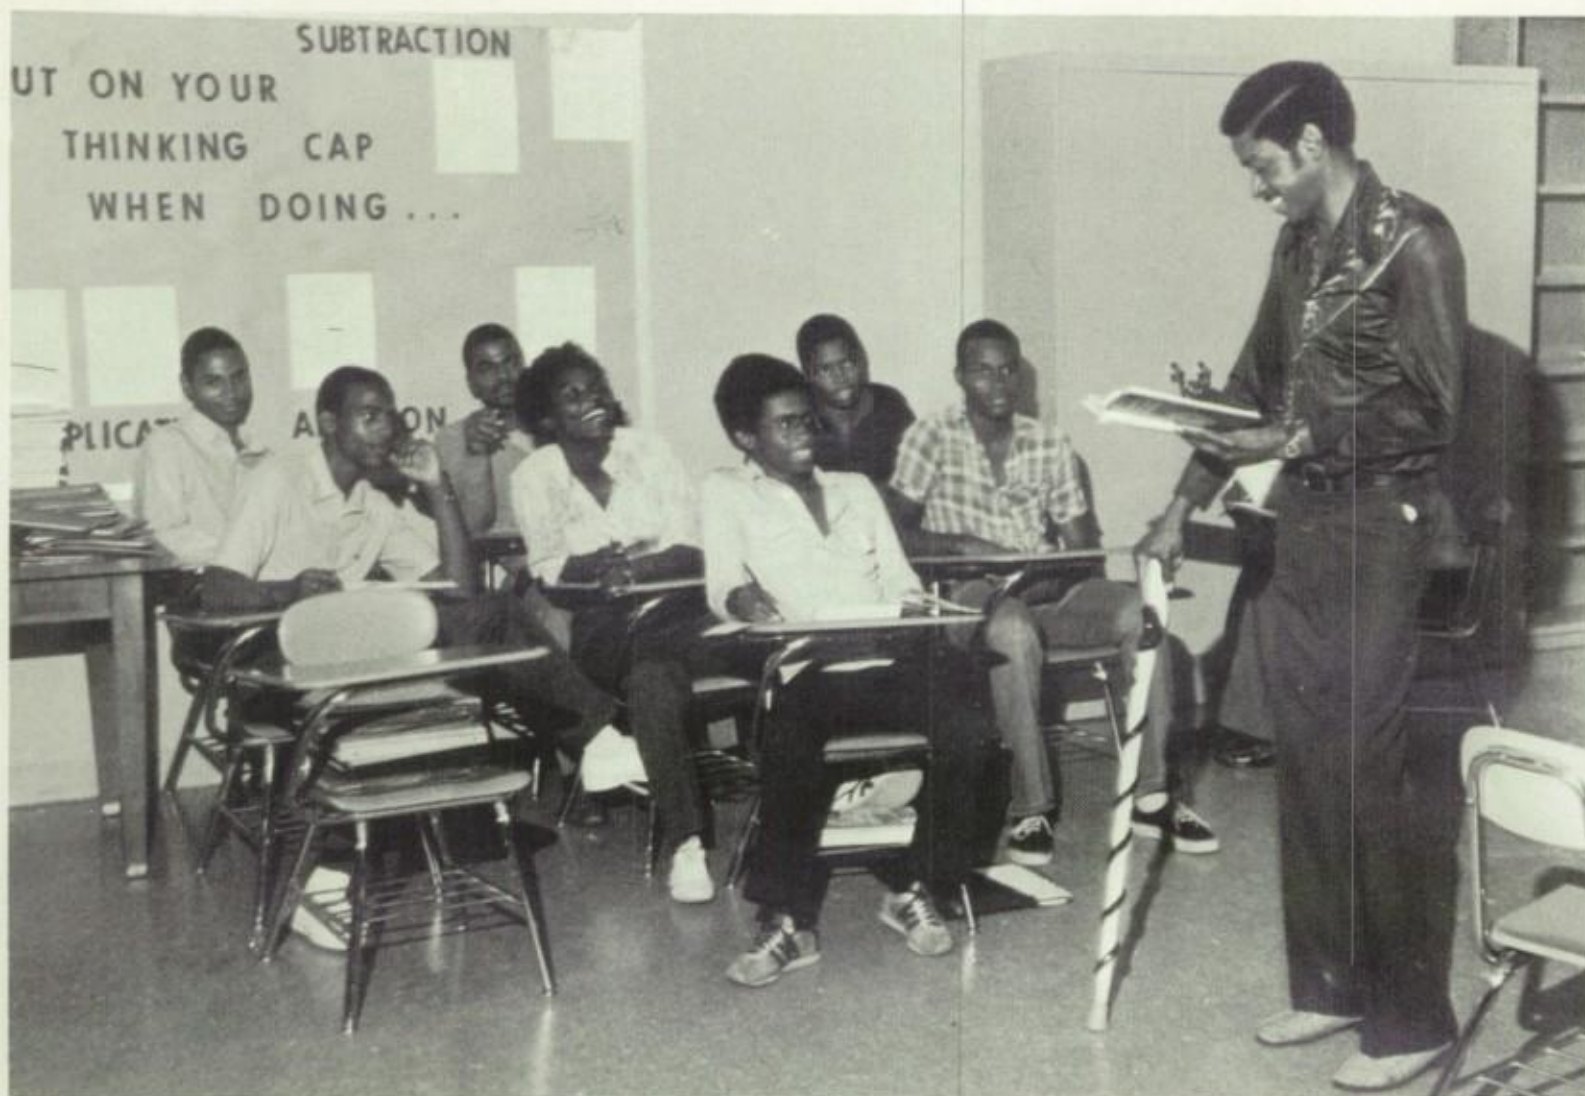

I just can't wait to graduate, and walk that aisle to get my paper in Woodson, my Woodson.

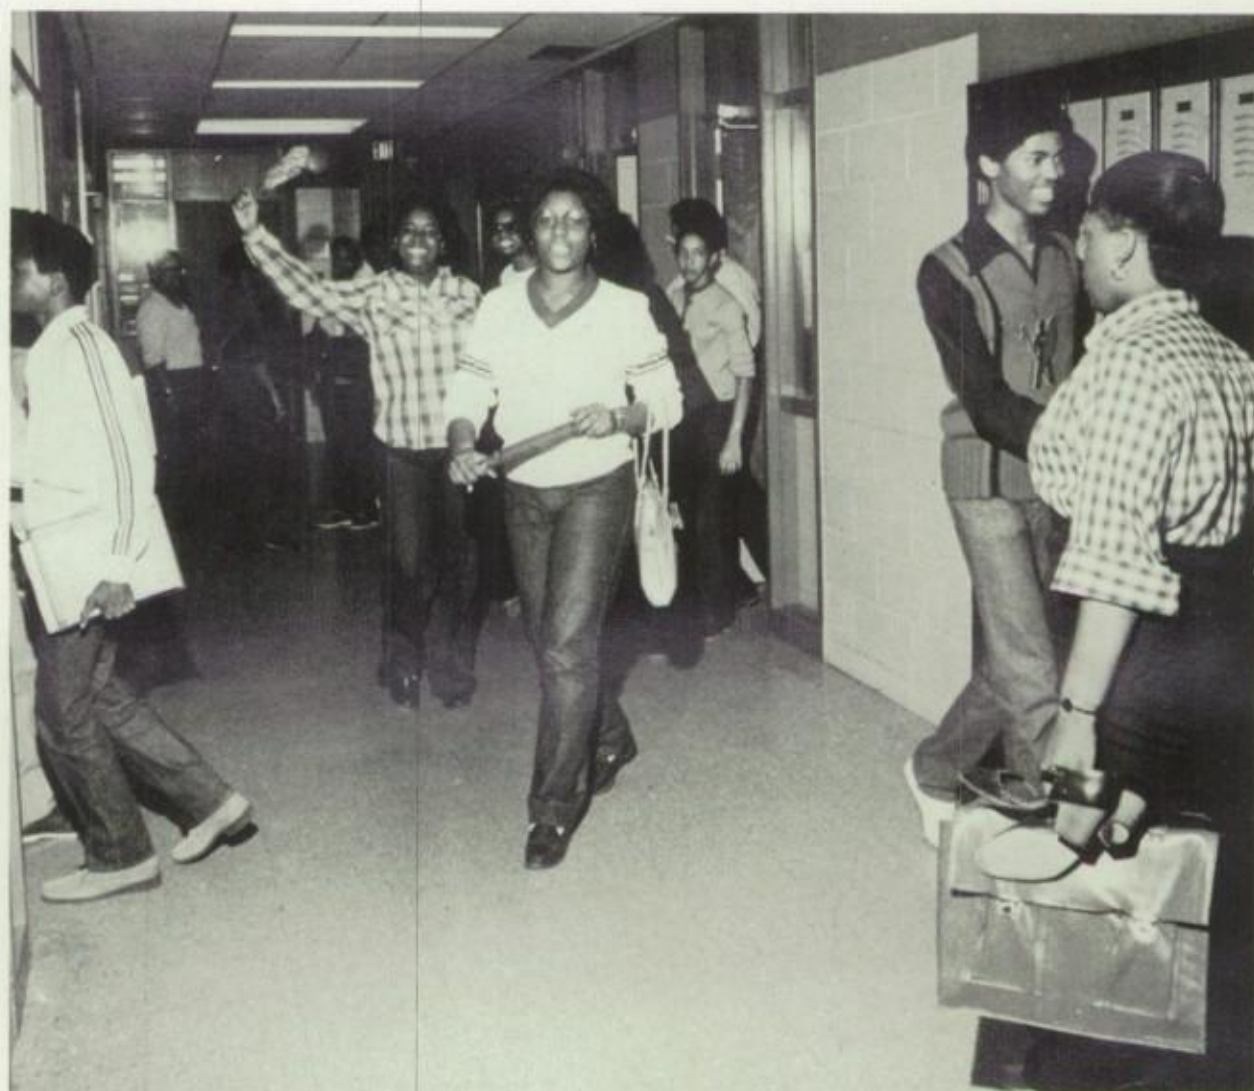

I ain't never seen a school, equipped with such a swimming pool, elevators, escalators, things I've been wishing, electric pianos and air conditioning

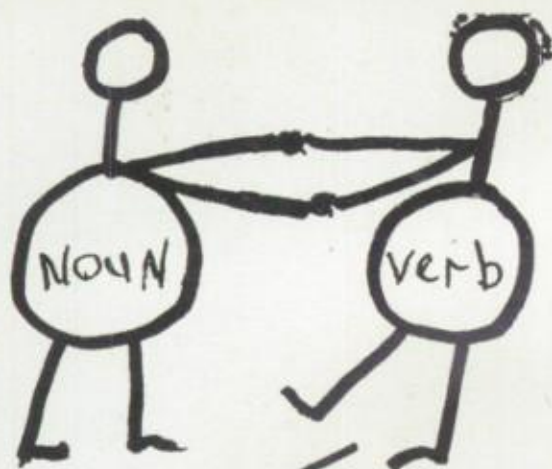

You just thrill me through and through, Woodson I'm so proud of you

I'll stay here till my learning's through Woodson, My Woodson!!!

IF

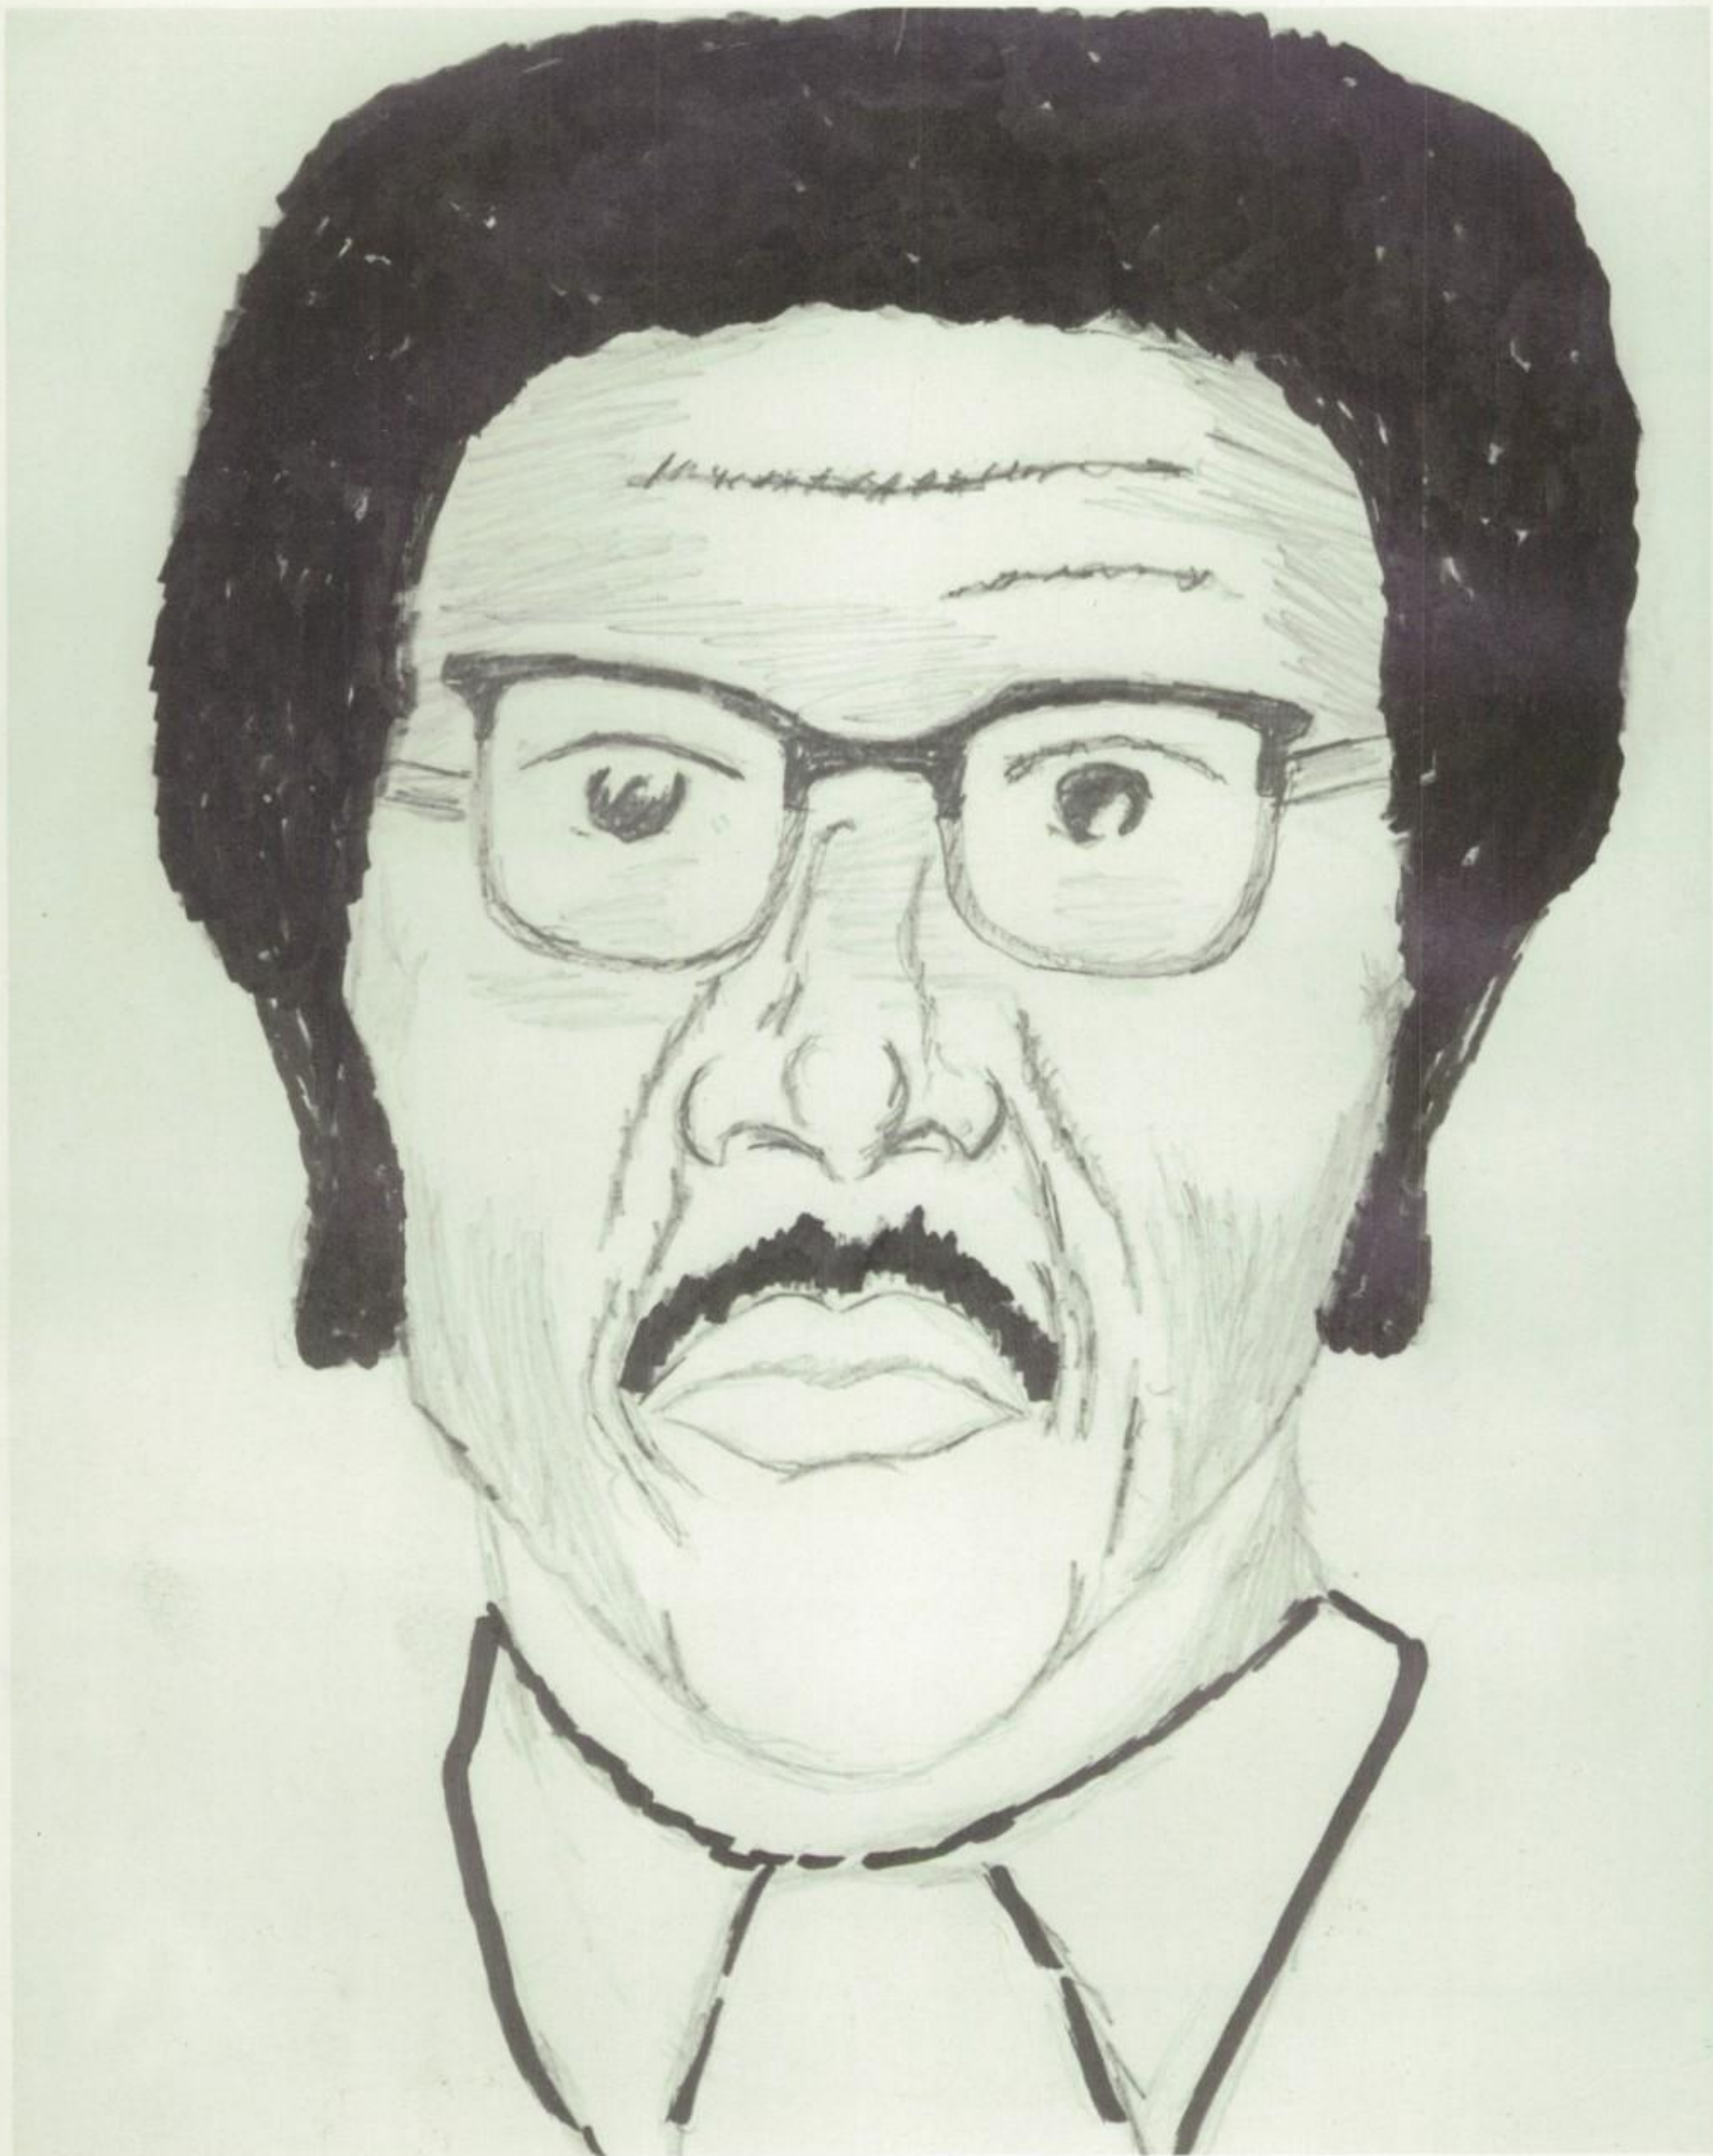

Rudyard Kipling

If you can keep your head when all about you are losing theirs and blaming it on you,
If you can trust yourself when all men doubt you, but make allowance for their doubting too;
If you can wait and not be tired by waiting, or being lied about, don't deal in lies,
Or being hated, don't give way to hating, and yet don't look too good, nor talk too wise:

If you can dream — and not make dreams your master; If you can think — and not make thoughts your aim,
If you can meet with Triumph and Disaster and treat those two imposters just the same;
If you can bear to hear the truth you've spoken twisted by knaves to make a trap for fools,
Or watch the things you gave your life to, broken, and stoop and build'em up with worn-out tools:

If you can make one heap of all your winnings and risk it on one turn of pitch-and-toss,
And lose, and start again at your beginnings and never breathe a word about your loss;
If you can force your heart and nerve and sinew to serve your turn long after they are gone,
And so hold on when there is nothing in you except the Will which says to them:
"Hold on!"

If you can talk with crowds and keep your virtue, or walk with Kings — nor lose the common touch,
If neither foes nor loving friends can hurt you, if all men count with you, but none too much;
If you can fill the unforgiving minute with sixty seconds' worth of distance run, Yours is the Earth and everything that's in it, and — which is more — you'll be a Man, my son!

Dear Graduates,

Your years spent at Howard Dilworth Woodson are now but memories that you will reflect on for many years to come. Now you must look ahead because the future is where you will live for the rest of your lives. That future will be difficult to predict, but by and large, you can determine what it will be. One unknown writer has said, "Fortune favors the best prepared people"; therefore, continue to study, to work hard and to have faith that you can become whatever you want to be.

Also develop strong personal values and commit yourselves to whatever is true, honest, just and of good report. With these virtues, you can help make your world and your place in it what it should be.

With fond memories, I wish you well as you continue your journey into the future.

Sincerely,

James W. Curry, Sr.

We believe that the keystone to quality education here at Woodson will be a strong library. It will be our responsibility as teacher-librarians to locate, organize and disseminate all kinds of media in a way which will best serve our school community of students, teachers, supervisors, and administrators. The keyword here is SERVE, for the school library is not merely a storehouse for books, equipment, periodicals, and other media. The library must serve as a teaching instrument within the overall framework of our school. Therefore, the librarians must keep constantly aware of innovations, curricular trends, and instructional techniques.

We believe that the school library should be a leadership and creative unit and not only a support unit, leading students to self-discovery and the use of many kinds of media. Media should not be restricted for use only by teachers and administrators. Students must be able to discover and learn by using audio-visual as well as printed materials.

The purpose of our counseling program at Woodson Senior High School is to encourage the progressive effort of each student toward his total self-fulfillment and development.

In order for the student to progress toward such a goal, it is necessary to inspire his curiosity and resourcefulness in a number of key areas. He must work toward awareness of himself as an individual; he must study his strengths and weaknesses, his interests, preferences and all of the various traits which make him unique. He also needs to become aware of society — his relationship to it — and how he can best function within it.

The counselors at Woodson intend to work to the utmost of their ability to help each individual attain these goals.

Foreign Languages have an important role to play in this ever-changing world. Thus, it is the goal of the Foreign Language Department to provide a diversified program of instruction. For, through diversified foreign language learning, societal-attitudinal changes occur.

It is the objective of the Foreign Language Department to contribute to the student's intellectual, social, aesthetic and emotional growth; in an effort to assist the student toward a more positive approach to other cultures. Through in-depth experiences with the thought processes and social behavior of other cultures, the student will be better able to cope with the societies and the changes which he will encounter in life.

The progress of Driver Education over the decades indicates that instruction in the safe, efficient and courteous operation of an automobile has become an essential part of American education. It is now widely recognized that Driver Education in schools is one of the best ways we know to teach the proper attitudes, knowledge, and skills needed for responsible motoring citizenship. Evidence of this comes from studies showing that there are fewer traffic accidents and violations among teenagers who receive driver education than among those who did not receive it. These are the objectives which we expect to obtain as we have in the previous years.

The Social Studies Department seeks to educate the student on Local, National and International Affairs. It is the Department's goal to have the student well-informed on the social, economic, political and religious aspects of all Institutions in the Universe! With this in mind, the student will have a vast reservoir of knowledge at his disposal. However, knowledge alone is not sufficient; we also attempt to build character. If character is developed, then we feel that the student has been trained and educated. Education without training is useless, and training without education is useless.

The Humanistic Studies is an Academic and Cultural Enrichment program which was introduced at Woodson in 1973. As a pilot program funded by Title III and Title IV, Humanistic Studies was extended to three additional senior high schools and eventually to two more, bringing the total of schools to six.

The program was designed for the talented and gifted though disadvantaged student and is accelerated and college preparatory in nature. Humanistic Studies has been the recipient of grant awards from the National Endowment for the Humanities and the National Humanities Faculty.

Mrs. Marie Thompson, Coordinator and Director of the program between 1973 and 1979, was selected as one of fifty teachers across the nation to participate in the Master Teachers in Humanities project sponsored by the National Humanities Faculty.

The H.D. Woodson girls basketball team has already had a 19-game winning streak this year and a streak of 38 over the last two seasons, so its latest winning streak of two would seem insignificant.
However, those two straight victories are the Warriors' most important of the season, since they

Woodson Girls' Team Asked to Jamaica Meet

By Bruce Branch
Special to The Washington Star

The record-breaking H.D. Woodson High School girls' track team has been invited to Kingston, Jamaica, to participate in the prestigious Gibson Relays.

There is one problem, however.
Unless the team can raise $1,300 in the next five days it will be unable to make the trip.

"We're the only girls' team from the United States that was invited," Warriors Coach Tom Gomillion said.
"So far we have raised $500 of the necessary funds needed to finance the trip, but time is running out."

Last season the Warriors shattered 23 meet records, including the National indoor mark for the mile relay. They also became the first team from Washington to win the

the group to Jamaica, where they will face international competition.

Led by its "super-six quintet" of Wanda Watts, Felecia Moore, Sherese
West, Cecile Carter, Charleeta Whitehead and Leslie Humphries, Woodson warmed up for Jamaica by sprinting to the girls title last Friday at the Armory in the D.C. Invitational Indoor Championships.

They set meet records in the mile and 880, while Humphries, Whitehead and West took the 440, 220 and 70 yard dashes, respectively. Moore finished second in the 70.

Gomillion was impressed by the team's performance, especially in the mile-relay where they cruised home first with a sparkling 1:46.4 time, a meet record.

It's Academic

Competing on television was fun, but most gratifying was the knowledge we gained in the process. The skills in literature, science, math, history and general knowledge were especially helpful in preparation for the various college admittance tests. It's Academic promotes an incentive for knowledge. We felt that it was, indeed, a privilege to represent H. D. Woodson, academically. But most of all to the memory of Ms. Laura Watkins who worked diligently to prepare us.

OH, IT IS SO GREAT TO BE A JAUNTY JUNIOR TODAY, BECAUSE WE KNOW TO BE A SENIOR IS NOT FAR AWAY!
 NEXT YEAR WE'LL BE SO FINE AS THE LEADERS WHO MAY SHOW THE UNDERCLASSMEN HOW TO MAINTAIN THE WOODSON WAY!

Sagacious Sophomores are we Filled with a lot of gaiety
We enjoying knowing happily
That next year, JUNIORS
We shall be!

YOU ASK: Who are the FANTASTIC Freshmen??

We reply that WE are, of course, my friend
Our tremendous beginning, we contend will make US the greatest in the end!

Thank you.

To my wonderful English classes who were so understanding and patient when deadlines were due throughout the months and who pretended to never notice when I would go berserk;

To my colleagues who pleasantly posed (sometimes several times), who supported my fantastic (and sometimes not so fantastic) projects; who helped to type and who understandingly allowed my staff to be excused; to "Shake" who patiently and uncomplainingly cleaned around rows of pictures night, after night, after night . . . to Mr. Whitfield who let me out after securing the building hours before;

To all the supporting staff and underclassmen I was unable to include this time;

To a tremendous Yearbook Staff who extended beyond the ones who received credit; to all the beautiful students such as Moanick, Jackie, Cheryl, Lorraine, Terry, Yvette, Lynita and Valerie . . .

To Mr. Queen who believed one should be allowed at least a first attempt, and then created the chance . . .
